THE VOICE OF COUNCIL # 9475 VOLUME 34

NUMBER 12

GRAND KNIGHT'S REPORT

Brothers and Spouses,

We begin the Advent season 28 November 2021; the beginning of the ecclesiastical year in the Western churches. It is a time to prepare ourselves to celebrate the anniversary of the Lord's coming into the world as the incarnate God of love.

Our November meeting was highlighted with a mass in honor of Brother Joe Scheirman and in memory of Brother Stan Adams. Following the mass, an information briefing was given by Taylor Smith and Deana Latanzio from the Christ Our King Respect for Life Ministry regarding the Safe haven Baby Box legislative initiative they are championing. At the conclusion of the talk we enjoyed an outstanding dinner prepared and served by the wives.

The winner of the Council's Catholic Citizenship essay is Arden Atkinson. Her essay has been forwarded to the District Deputy for the District competition. A copy of the essay is included in this newsletter.

December is going to be a busy month. The Mount Pleasant Christmas parade is scheduled for 12 December 2021. Council 9475 will attempt to go for a third straight winning float for our category. Brother Josh Hullen is coordinating the effort and we need all the help we can get to build the float. Float build day is 11 December 2021. Our annual wreath sale began 26 November 2021. Come early to get a beautiful evergreen wreath as they go fast. Additionally, our combined, Council 9475 and Assembly 3243, Christmas party is scheduled for 17 December 2021 at the Beach House. Thanks go out to Matt Feltman and his crew who are planning the effort.

Please continue to pray for the end of COVID-19.

Vivat Jesus!

Joe Nesbitt G/K

Catholic Citizenship

Essay Contest

Winner Arden Atkinson 8th Grade

"Do not fear what you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, that you may be tested, and for ten days you will have tribulation. Be faithful unto death, and I will give you the crown of life." -Revelation 2:10. This bible quote describes the need to resist temptation and remain faithful to God in order to have eternal life with him in heaven. While this sounds like a fairly simple task, it is easier said than done.

Ever since the beginning of time, people have faced temptations. Whether it is faith related, such as Catholics worshipping false gods because of lack of faith, or simply just a little problem that people face everyday, such as the temptation to hit snooze when you really should get up for school. Especially today, with the internet, social media, and new ideas all around us, it seems temptation is everywhere. As a teen in 2021, it is definitely a struggle to remain faithful and resist temptation, but with the help of my parents, teachers, and friends, I have learned how to always live according to God's word and not give in to temptation.

Anyone who has been a teenager knows that it's not easy. Insecurities, popularity, stress, and school are just some of the many things on an average teenager's mind all the time. Now, more than ever, with teens being exposed to social media and the temptations it creates, faithfulness is dropping on the list of their priorities. Social media is a main source for both things good and bad. It is a great way to stay connected and make friends with others, however, it is also a platform for bad things to happen, such as teens posting pictures of themselves that are neither modest nor appropriate. I have seen many of my friends blinded from what is right just because they see others doing something wrong on social media. I think that it is very important that teens understand that as faithful Catholics, we must express modesty and humbleness in everything we do, even if society tells us that it is not necessary.

It is hard being a kid and growing up listening to two sides of the story constantly; society and the Church. The two have contradicting beliefs and ideas on so many things. However, despite the temptations and confusions of society, I have still been able to remain faithful to God and the Church with the help of others, especially my parents. My mom has always told me to stay modest in my appearance and I am very grateful for that. My mom taught me that covering up looks better on people, especially young girls, and doesn't attract unwanted attention from anyone. Despite current trends, children and teens should always be advised to turn to the church for their opinion before doing anything they could regret. My religion class has also helped me in always trying to do what is right. In my eighth grade religion class, I have come to better understand my faith and why the Catholic church believes the things it does.

Through all the temptations and difficulties of being a teenager, the Catholic faith has helped me remain the best version of myself. I am extremely grateful for everyone who has helped me lead a faith-filled life. Having faith is hard sometimes, but from personal experience, I know that God will always be there for me and call me back to him when I need it most. Temptation is a part of life, but with God and strong faith on your side, you can overcome anything that comes your way.

Christmas Wreath Sales Fund raiser underway and Thank You

Thank You to all Brother Knights and their wife that signed up to sell wreaths and a shout out to Joe Harkins Sr., Joe Harkins Jr., Marion Wright and Tom Franzone for assembling our tent for sales. Then a Big Thank You to Marion and Doris Wright and Tom and Fran Franzone for decorating 71 wreaths that evening for sale the next day Saturday 27, at 9AM. We are in business selling wreaths.

Meditation on the First Sunday in Advent

Jer 33:14-16; Ps 24: 4-14; 1 Thes 3: 12-4:2; Lk 21:25-36

The Readings for the First Sunday in Advent are really about waiting. We should be waiting in great anticipation for the Savior of our world, who was sent by God, the Father, to save us from our sins so that we will be with Him in Heaven one day. There are a number of ways to wait for something. What we want is the prayerful, patient, but productive waiting that will come when we ask the Holy Spirit to be us.

In our First Reading, Jeremiah was living during some of the darkest times in Israel's history. Due to a series of bad kings and priests, the people had sinned and lost God's blessing and in 587 BC Babylon had conquered them and exiled most of their leading citizens.

Jeremiah was told by God to lift up their spirts so that they would not lose faith completely. He wanted Jeremiah to tell them that they would eventually return to their homeland. After 75 years in captivity, King Cyrus of Persia conquered Babylon and allowed the Jewish people to return to their homeland. While Jeremiah did not live to see that day, what he predicted did come to be as well as his prophesy that the Messiah would come from the line of King David. That, of course, was Jesus Christ.

Our Psalmist, most probably King David, told us that he was prepared to wait all the day to learn the way of the Lord. He wanted the Lord to teach him to be patient and humble, to seek the truth, and find justice for the oppressed. He wanted to be forgiven of all of his sins so he could be sinless. These are all of the virtues we need during this Advent Season.

In our Second Reading, St. Paul was urging the people to wait patiently for the return of Jesus by living their lives as Jesus wanted them to. This is what Jesus wants from us as we await His birth on Christmas day: to increase our love for one another and to conduct ourselves in a manner pleasing to God. This may not be the way the world wants us to act.

As we prepare for the coming of Jesus on Christmas day, let's avoid all the hustle and bustle of the season. Take the time to pray each day. Get up 15 minutes early and go to a quiet place and spend some time with the Lord. Try to go to Mass at least one day during the week or make a visit to the Chapel to be with the Lord. Before we go to bed, take 10 minutes to think about our day. What we did right and what we could improve on. Make a plan for a good day the next day when we will love the Lord and love everyone we come into contact with.

Our Gospel is all about what will happen when Jesus comes again. It all comes down to being prepared. Jesus says to be vigilant at all times and pray that we have the strength to stand before God when our time comes. There are so many things we can do right now to be ready: our spouse says something to push our buttons: we respond by saying: I love you. A person we do not know acts in a way that is very irritating: like cutting in front of us to take our parking space, talking loudly on their cell phone. We react with patient, humility, asking the Holy Spirit to be with us and He will.

We know for sure that Christmas day, the birthday of the Savior of the world, is coming. Let's wait patiently but do everything we can to be ready to receive Him on that great day.
