EAST COOPER KNIGHTS

OCTOBER, 2022 THE VOICE OF COUNCIL # 9475 VOLUME 35 NUMBER 10

GRAND KNIGHT'S REPORT

My brother Knights and extended Knights of Columbus family: There are so many exciting KofC things going on. If you missed the last meeting, you missed a wonderful and moving speech from College of Charleston Baseball Coach Chad Holbrook. Ask a brother who was there all about it! Thank you, Brother Don Campbell, for inviting Coach. I am very much looking forward to this month's meeting speaker, Mt Pleasant Police Chief Arnold.

Please consider attending the screening of the movie, Mother Theresa: No Greater Love on October 3rd & 4th, 7:00pm, at Regal Palmetto Grande Stadium 16. It was produced by the Knights of Columbus.

Tickets for the Harbor Cruise are still on sale. Please contact Brother Neil Whitman for your tickets, before we sell out again this year!

Let me close this month by sharing a story... Last month, Cindy and I made our annual 'pilgrimage' to the University of Notre Dame to visit campus and see a football game. As is a part of our annual tradition, we visit the Notre Dame grotto. Built in 1896, Notre Dame's Grotto replicates the place in Lourdes, France where Mary appeared to St. Bernadette. Cindy and I always enjoy spending some quite time in the grotto praying and lighting a candle. Ironically, the summer issue of SALUTE (the magazine for the military services) was in our mailbox when we got home, and one of the articles was about the 62nd International Military Pilgrimage to Lourdes, France, sponsored for the US troops by none other than the Knights of Columbus. Coincidence, maybe?

Regardless, these two Lourdes references made me reflect on what is a pilgrimage? With a few google searches, I learned that a pilgrimage is a spiritual journey. It can be made anywhere. The destination is typically a holy site, but doesn't have to be. It can be near or far from home. But the journey is taken to experience God in a unique, deeper way. Prayer is the most basic, yet most important act of preparation we can do prior to, while on, at and after the pilgrimage. The goal is always spiritual transformation, to come back changed for the positive. As we move into fall, consider taking pilgrimage, alone or with your loved ones.

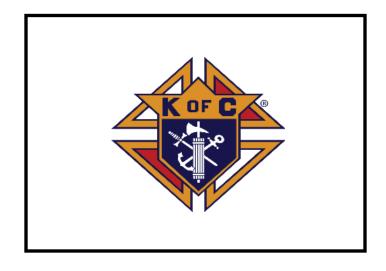

As always, I very much hope to see you at an upcoming council meeting, service event or social gathering. Please call and invite a brother who hasn't attended in a while. Or if you can, please bring another brother with you.

Pray for peace. Vivat Jesus.

Matt Feltman

Our Guest Speaker Baseball Coach Chad Holbrook Collage of Charleston

Coach Chad told us a very moving crisis of his son Reese. When he was 2 1/2 years old was diagnosed with stage 4 leukemia and if no action taken would die in two weeks. After 3 1/2 years of Chemo and spinal taps and by the Grace of God Reese is cancer free. Reese now plays baseball for UNC like his Dad and has same #2. Coach Chad puts a lot of time in raising funds for fighting children cancer.

Left Don Campbell our Guest Speaker procurer is presenting Coach Chad Holbrook with a umbrella and note book as a thank you for coming out and giving us a talk.

Sir Knights that Cooked Dinner for the Charleston Fisher House Tuesday, September 27, 2022

(A Note Sent to Sir Knights from Sir Knight Don Campbell manning the grill)

Brother Sir Knights,

Thank you to Deacon Kevin, Bob Thetreault, and Chuck Drouillard who did a great job cooking for the Fisher house last night. I guess our marinated grilled pork chops are getting famous - people couldn't wait to get their hands on them. Again, our thanks for projecting such a positive image

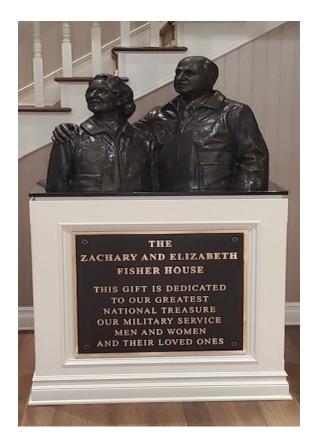

Thanks Don

Meditation on Being a Humble, Servant Leader

Sirach 35: 12-18; Ps 34: 2-23; Lk 18:9-24

Our Meditation points out the qualities of people who are extremely important to our church today: humble, servant leaders. This leads us to consider: are we humble, servant leaders?

The Old Testament book of Sirach has an interesting back story. Its source is from the writings of Ben Sira. He was a highly respected teacher who lived a good and holy life. He wrote papers, not for personal gain, but for all who sought instruction. He taught that the Jewish way of life was superior to the Greek way of life. The pagan Greek culture had made its impact felt throughout the Near East. Over the years, his writings led many people to persevere is their faith through good times and bad. His grandson took many of the writings of his grandfather, which were written in Hebrew, and translated them into the document which we now call the book of Sirach.

Ben Sira is a good example of a humble, servant leader. The way he lived his life was an inspiration to many, including his grandson. The way he lived his life resulted in his grandson becoming one. We are told: "the one who serves God willingly is heard, his petitions reach the heavens." It does not matter if we are rich or poor, oppressed, an orphan, a widow. Our prayers will pierce the clouds. God will respond favorably, in his time and in his way, to those who keep the Commandments and avoid being unjust to their neighbor.

Psalm 34 tells us: "when the just cry out, the Lord hears them and from their distress, He rescues them. We will all have difficulties from time to time. If we are just, if we remain humble, if we serve God and our neighbor, He will here us and come to our rescue in His time and in his way. We can rely on this.

In the Gospel of Luke, Jesus addresses those who might think more of themselves than they deserve. He used characters who would have been familiar to his audience in his attempt to turn around commonly held beliefs. He reminded his audience, and us, to always remain humble, servant leaders, in good times and bad. He contrasts the attitudes of the Pharisee with the tax collector. The Pharisee would have been looked upon by the people as righteous, honest and upright. Jesus presents him as a person who thought too much of himself and believed the tax collector was not worthy of God's forgiveness.

The tax collector was really looked down upon by just about everybody in the community. Most tax collectors were thought to cheat the people by demanding more than was due and they turned most of the collected taxes over to the roman occupiers.

These would have been the clear expectations by the audience for the Pharisee and tax collector but Jesus turned those expectations around. The tax collector was truly humble. He was sorry for his sins: "o God be merciful to me a sinner." He received forgiveness of his sins. Not so for the proud Pharisee.

We are told: "God will humble whoever exalts himself and the one who humbles himself will be exalted, raised up, blessed. This is the lesson for us. We need to always remain humble and not think about ourselves or our accomplishments. We need to give God thanks for all the good things he does for us. Let's recognize our sinfulness and our complete dependence upon God's goodness and mercy.

Being a humble, servant leader is what we should want to be. We can become one by trusting in the Lord, living our lives as Jesus taught us, and being good examples for everyone around us: our families, friends, and business associates. We will be rewarded for this. God will come to us in our time of need. And we will be there for people in their time of need. This will give us a chance to lead those people to be humble, servant leaders too, just like Ben Sira and his grandson.
