

EAST COOPER KNIGHTS

JUNE, 2024 THE VOICE OF COUNCIL # 9475 VOLUME 37 NUMBER 6

GRAND KNIGHT'S REPORT

Brother Knights

Another year has passed quickly but looking back on it, it is amazing how much we accomplished. We were blessed to have the Bishop come to our Council meeting and share his thoughts with both Brother Knights and spouses. Other Speakers came to us from the Charleston area Pregnancy center, the Medal of Honor organization, and other internal Knights' special topics. We took a crew out to James Island County Park to cook burgers & dogs and divvy up water-melon for over 100 special children from Camp Rise Above. Brother Knights were out in force to oversee the free throw contest which was quite a success. When the weather stated to get a chill in the year, our Council donated twenty new coats for kids in need. Brother and Sir Knights volunteered their time to prepare and cook dinner for multiple Veteran families staying at the downtown Fisher House.

Brother Knights also led us in a vigil in front of the women's clinic to pray for an end of abortion, as well as participation in the Walk for Life in Columbia. Brother Knights also made a statement of Faith with carrying a replica cross through Mount Pleasant and utilizing our Giant rosary following the cross procession in the Christ Our King Altar Garden.

Brother Knights also raised a good bit of money for deserving charities. Our annual Golf Tournament raised over $16,000 which we donated to Catholic charities. Checks were also earmarked for Seminarians, our four parishes, and many local charities. On top of all of this we were able to host a community wide spaghetti dinner, two fish fry's and very successful oyster roast. And we can't forget how quickly we sold out of Christmas wreaths.

The Knights also know how to have fun as we cruised the harbor aboard our annual harbor cruise. We kicked off the year with a beach bash down on the Isle of palms and gathered together to celebrate a Christmas dinner.

We remember those Brother Knights that are no longer with us and pray for those in need. I thank all Knights that helped make this another wonderful year!

EXEMPLIFICATION OF CHARITY, UNITY, AND FRATERNITY

Knight of the Month
May 2024
William Simons

The exemplification was held before our
Regular Meeting in the nave of St. Benedict's Church
May 16, 2024.

Congratulations becoming 3rd degree Knights!!!

Brother William Simons has been a 9475 Knight of Columbus for about thirty-five years. Mt. Pleasant has been his lifelong home. Will's wife Gabriela is from Brazil and they met at the Young Adults group at COK Parish. They have been married for thirty-eight years. Will and Gabriela have three children and four grandchildren. Will and Gabriela are members of Christ Our King Parish. Since 1979, Will has been self-employed in landscape contracting. About six years ago, Will expanded into artistic plasma-cut steel and custom woodwork such as farm tables and retail displays. Will and Gabriela are very generous donating their artistic works to the Knights oyster roast fund raiser for many years.

Over the years, along with K of C, Will has served as a Cursillo leader for several years, worked on a Kairos team, and taught CCD at the Cathedral for a couple of years. Also, Will worked with the formation of the Serra Club of Charleston which he was active in for ten or more years. The Serra Club works to support and promote vocations to the priesthood and consecrated religious life. In 2022, Will published a book titled "Living in the Light of the Face of God." In short, it reveals the history, power, love, and mercy of living in the spiritual Light of the Face of God.

Continually, Will is inspired by the dedicated service of his brother Knights who assist in many areas of parish and community life. Truly, brother Knights, are a light of Christ in this world.

Congratulations Will!!!

Above our Family Director Kurt Denner presented Brother Knight Will Simons center with Knight of the Month June 2024 certificate and our acting Grand Knight Deacon Kevin Campbell is presenting Will with a Knights cup.

Guest Speakers
From
Pro-Life Charleston Holy City
Mobile Pregnancy Center

The first mobile pregnancy center in the Greater Charleston Metro Area, the Holy City Mobile Pregnancy Center (HCMPC) provides free pregnancy tests and limited obstetric ultrasounds to women who may have limited resources or face challenges accessing medical care. Their services are designed to be accessible to all women.

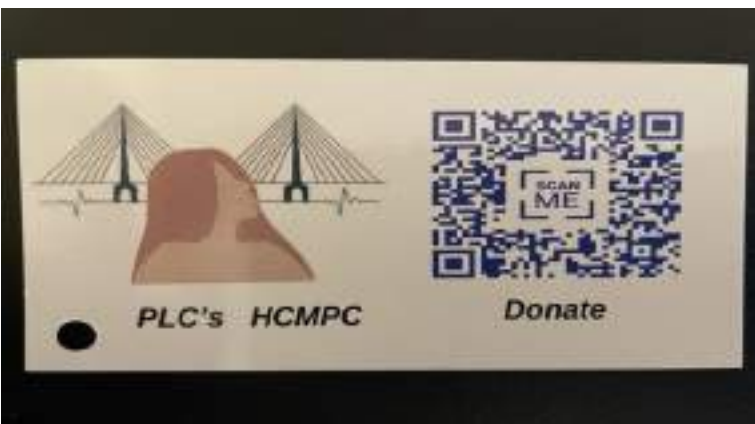

Above is a picture of the Prenatal Mobile Clinic that was brought to our location and Brother Knights toured the Mobile Clinic.

Meditation on the Most Holy Trinity

By Deacon Kevin Campbell

St. Augustine was walking by the seashore one day, attempting to find an explanation for the mystery of the Trinity. As he walked along, he saw a small boy on the beach, pouring seawater from a shell into a small hole in the sand. “What are you doing, my child?” Asked Augustine. “I am emptying the sea into this hole,” the boy answered with an innocent smile. “But that is impossible, my dear child,” said Augustine. The boy stood up, looked St Augustine right in the eye and replied, “What you are trying to do – comprehend the mystery of the Trinity even more impossible.” Then he vanished. The child was an angel sent by God to teach Augustine a lesson.

When we consider the Trinity, the key word is mystery. There are at least 3 ways to approach it: we can disregard it or not believe it. Jesus called these people: the wise and the learned. These were code words for the scribes and the Pharisees. Today we call them close minded and the arrogant.

A second way is to say I fully understand and comprehend it. This is somewhat questionable. St. Augustine, one of the greatest theologians of all time, who wrote the book about it, called: “On the Trinity”, said 30 years after he had written the book: I do not fully understand what I have written.”

The third way is to just accept it. Jesus called these people: the child-like. Later he would say: “the only way to get to heaven was to have a child-like faith in me”.

It is important that we realize it is not a problem if we do not fully comprehend the Trinity. What we need to do is to try and understand what we can, and then build on that.

So how do we go about taking whatever our understanding of the Trinity is and building upon it? When we pray, it is important to remember that we have only one, true God. Then we focus on the special role of each person of the Trinity: first, we have our heavenly Father, to whom great praise and glory must be given because he created us. Jesus called God, the Father: Abba or Daddy. We can have the same intimate relationship with God as our Daddy. We should refer to him as Abba, our Daddy.

Then we have our Brother, Jesus, who showed us how to live our lives. Out of love for us, he chose to suffer and die so that we would be in heaven with him one day.

Finally, we have our Friend, the Holy Spirit. He gives us his gifts including wisdom, understanding, knowledge and courage so that we can get through all of the trials and temptations in this life. He wants us to have the peace, joy and happiness that only God can give.

So, we have God, the Father, our Daddy, who is the creator of all things; God, our Brother, Jesus, who died and rose again to give us new life; and God, our Friend, the Holy Spirit, who gives us his gifts for our journey.

Daddy, Brother, Friend...

Let's think of them in this way every time we pray. When we do, we will enjoy a better understanding of this mystery. When we do, we will have a closer relationship with our Daddy, our Brother and our Friend.
