

EAST COOPER KNIGHTS

May, 2025 THE VOICE OF COUNCIL # 9475 VOLUME 38 NUMBER 5

GRAND KNIGHT'S REPORT

Thanks for all the good work that is being done. Many thanks to Brother Knight, Bob Brennan, for taking the lead at our last Council Meeting when I was on a well-deserved, hard-earned vacation with my family.

We have had two very successful fish fries led by our Brother Knight Marion Wright. We also had a successful Speech Contest on April 11 for the 7th and 8th grade students of COK-SM School. According to the Judges from Toastmasters, the speeches were phenomenal.

We have some fun events coming up including our Annual Golf Tournament led by Brother Knight Bob Fintak on May 12 at the beautiful Snee Farm Country Club. On May 16 we will have a new event: the KOC Family Fun Bingo Knight which will be held in the gym at the COK-SM School and will be a great time to get together with our ladies, our kids and/or our grandkids. On May 18, we will be giving out the award for the best paper on American History by a senior at Bishop England High School.

So, we have a number of events coming up that we all need to try to participate in, and that includes increasing our membership. I believe that every catholic man in our 4 Parishes should be an active member of this council and it is our duty to do the inviting. Let's all get to work on this.

I want to thank Tom and Fran Franzone for another great monthly newsletter. Please read our newsletter thoroughly to keep up with all that is going on in this council.

I also want to give a shout out to Fran Franzone and Kathy Campbell, Don's wife, for setting up the meetings for our Ladies. We all benefit from a strong group of Ladies. If your Lady is not getting any notices and wants to receive notices of their meetings, please let me know.

On May 15th we will have our monthly Council meeting with Dr. Mike Bowman presenting a talk on Grief and Grieving.

Finally, it is not too soon to plan to attend our Installation Banquet and dinner with our Ladies. It will be held in grace hall on the COK campus on June 19th from 6:30pm. Come and be with us to celebrate the wonderful year we are having.

Deacon Kev

Knight of the Month
April 2024
Dr. Yusuf (JP) Saleeby, MD

Dr. Yusuf (JP) Saleeby, MD is an Integrative & Functional Medical Physician. He is an author of books and chapters in books on Functional and Holistic Medicine. He authored "Wonder Herbs: a guide to three adaptogens" in 2006. He has since contributed chapters to several medical books since then. Dr. Saleeby is the Medical Director of two centers in South Carolina (Carolina Holistic Medicine) and founder of the Priority Health Academy (PHA) a non-profit educational arm of the practice. His Academy provides education and training in functional medicine/healing and assists those wishing to establish centers similar in the USA and Canada. He is a clinical professor in functional medicine and biomedical ethics for the PHA.

Dr. Saleeby is an avid warrior for medical freedoms and patient advocacy. He is one of the first of eight USA Senior Fellows with the FLCCC (now the Independent Medical Alliance) and advisor and co-chair of the educational committee for The BODY Healthcare. He also champions more locally with the SC Physicians for Freedom (SCPFF) for healthcare reforms for the state of SC. He has been an advisor to the LDN Research Trust in the UK for many years.

He retired from Emergency Medicine after 17-years to focus on a more holistic approach to patient care. He has an interest in Medical History and lectures on the American Civil War topics, medical advances and luminaries such as Drs. Porcher, Baruch and McGuire to name a few.

Dr. Saleeby is a member of medical organizations such as: IFM, ILADS, AARM, and in association and Senior Fellow to the IMA as mentioned.

Born in Beirut, Lebanon he and his family moved permanently to the USA in 1979. He graduated from high school near Atlanta, GA and enjoyed higher education at Georgia Tech and Georgia State University graduating with a degree major in Biology and minor in Chemistry and Philosophy. He then attended the Medical College of Georgia in Augusta and graduated in 1991 with a medical degree to continue post-graduate education at the Brody School of Medicine at East Carolina University School of medicine. From there he moved to Savannah, GA to start his medical career.

An avid swimmer he participated on the GSU undergrad swim team and also had interest in Luge and Olympic Style Weight Lifting earning some podium finishes with Masters Lifting in the mid-2000s.

While in Lebanon in a melting pot of different cultures and religions he was exposed to many from Hindu to Islam and practiced with his family Roman Catholicism (mother) and Melkite, Greek Orthodox (father), Maronite until returning to the USA. His great-grandfather was a Greek Orthodox priest. The family name Saleeby is Arabic for "defender of the cross".

Growing up he was an acolyte, altar server while at the Salesian School in Lebanon and in America as a Eucharistic minister. In college he was active at the Newman Centers on all campuses. He was a Boy Scout and achieve rank of Eagle in the class of 1982. He obtained both Catholic medals while as scouts (Ad Altaire Dei & Pope Pius XII).

After reading Seven Story Mountain by Trappist Monk and Mystic Thomas Merton while in philosophy classes at GSU he considered that vocation, but continued on to medical school. After a 15-year hiatus from the church, he returned to the Catholic Church with his wife Sharon to embrace their religion. That was kickstarted by a spiritual retreat at Mepkin Abbey in 2020. Sharon and JP recently completed a silent retreat in Feb. 2025 at the Abbey. They look forward to another in Conyers Georgia at that Cistercian monastery there later this year.

JP is the stepfather to four amazing grown children of Sharons and two children of his own (Mic and Madison) who reside in North Carolina. JP's only sibling Cindy lives with her husband Mike in Cary, NC and his father resides with them there as well (he is 90 years old and as mentioned a KOC member).

Sharon and JP joined St. Benedicts parish in 2024 and he became a Knight in November 2024, recently becoming a 4th degree Knight in March of this year.

Congratulations JP!!!

Tate and Shea Hamilton

Tate and Shea have a 7-month-old son named Mark. The family became members of the Catholic Church at the Easter Vigil in 2024, and shortly after, Tate joined the Knights of Columbus in October 2024. They are active parishioners at Stella Maris Church and enjoy the Latin Mass.

Shea was born in raised in northern Virginia by two loving parents who had left the Church earlier in life. She later came to faith in college through the works of C.S. Lewis, where she met Tate through mutual friends. Shea studied Supply Chain and Operations management but her heart was always in the humanities. Tate was the first person with a real South Carolina accent that Shea had ever met... they were engaged 6 months later! Shea enjoys cuddling her baby, cleaning and reorganizing her apartment and the occasional glass of Sauvignon Blanc.

Tate was born in Dillon, SC, and is proud to be a seventh-generation South Carolinian. He and his wife, Shea, moved to Charleston two years ago from Columbia. Tate graduated from the University of South Carolina, where he studied Political Science and Religious Studies.

Tate works as an Account Executive for RXO Logistics.

Congratulations Tate Family!!!

Monthly Meditation May 2025

Brother Knights,

As we welcome the beautiful month of May, the Church invites us to turn our hearts and minds toward the Blessed Virgin Mary. May is traditionally dedicated to Mary, our Mother, who is not only the model of perfect discipleship but also a powerful intercessor for all the faithful. For us as Knights of Columbus, this is a sacred time to reflect on her virtues and imitate her example in our families, parishes, and communities.

Mary's life was one of humility, faith, courage, and unwavering service. From her "yes" at the Annunciation to her quiet strength at the foot of the Cross, she teaches us what it means to trust in God's will and to live out our faith in love. This month, I encourage each of you to renew your devotion to Our Lady. Consider praying the Rosary daily, especially with your family. The Rosary is not just a Marian prayer—it is a Christ-centered meditation that brings peace to our hearts and strength to our mission.

As Catholic men and Knights, we are called to lead our families in holiness. In Mary, we see the heart of a mother who nurtures and protects. Let us follow her example by being present, prayerful, and supportive in our homes. May our words and actions reflect the love of Christ, just as hers did.

May is also a time of new life and growth—visible in nature and mirrored in the life of the Church. Many receive First Communion and Confirmation during this season. Let us pray for the young members of our Church and encourage them in their faith journeys. As Knights, we should actively support these milestones through our presence, mentorship, and witness.

In our service, let us remember that Mary was the first to bring Christ to the world. We, too, are called to carry Christ to others—especially those in need. Whether it's helping at parish events, reaching out to the lonely, or organizing acts of charity, let everything we do be rooted in love.

Brothers, as we journey through this Marian month, may Our Lady of Guadalupe, patroness of our Order, guide and protect us. Let us draw closer to her Immaculate Heart and, through her, to the Sacred Heart of her Son.

Vivat Jesus!

Rev Libin Augustine CMI

Parochial Vicar, Christ Our King Catholic Church

Our Guest Speaker
From
St. Clare's Home Charleston

Executive Director Valerie Baronkin, gave us talk on the homeless population continues to grow and how they get multiple calls a day from women, living in their cars, in the woods or just being kicked out of their home with no place to go.

She mentioned the Bishop recently asked them to expand to the Charleston Area. They have found a place in North Charleston and working on negotiation with owner. If they work out, there would be renovations needed and help from the Knights would be greatly appreciated.

The Charleston Home will be run with the same model as the successful Greenville location and will be under the same management. Charleston will have different Sisters. Sister Lena and the Hospitalier Sisters will run the Charleston Home.
